Chapter 1 : Incidences Daniil Kharms

Daniil kharms (1905-42) mainly made a living writing children's books in leningrad. he also wrote poems and absurd short stories, often published in underground magazines, after the avant-garde literary societies that kharms was associated with were banned by the stalin regime. Featuring the acclaimed novella the old woman and darkly humorous short prose sequence events (sluchai), today i wrote nothing also includes dozens of short prose pieces, plays, and poems long admired in russia, but never before available in english. In addition to his numerous works in prose and poetry for both children and adults, daniil kharms (1905-42), one of the founders of russia's "lost literature of the absurd," wrote notebooks and a diary for most of his adult life.
